

JACS - Jewish Alcoholics, Chemically Dependent Persons and Significant Others is a program of The Jewish Board. Since 1978 JACS is dedicated to: Encouraging and assisting Jewish alcoholics, chemically dependent persons and their families, friends and associates to explore recovery in a nurturing Jewish environment. Promoting knowledge and understanding of the disease of alcoholism and chemical dependency as it involves the Jewish community. JACS acts as a resource center and information clearinghouse on the effects of alcoholism and drug dependency on Jewish family life. JACS "plants" thousands of Jews in Recovery through:

- Crises Support, Local and International Referrals
Weekend Retreats & Full Day Spiritual Events
- Prevention & Education Programs/Workshops
- Celebrating Sober Jewish Holidays in person or by phone
- Sober Birthright Israel Tours & Young People's Networking
- Jewish culture competency consultation to treatment centers and other institutions
